From Their Majesties

To the people of the Outlands

As of this writing the Estrella War hasn't happened, but a lot of effort has been and is being put into preparations and training, making tabards, preparing food, helping each other get rides, get armored. We are sure we will have won the war by the time you read this, war points or no war points. When we pull together as a kingdom we are unstoppable.

Being Crown has given us special opportunity to experience the generosity and hospitality of many people in the kingdom. Often we know our benefactors, and sometimes we do not. People help organize events, provide largesse for Us to distribute, help cook, clean up, arrange elegant royal rooms, and We might never hear their names or see their faces, but their service is noticed and appreciated. We see people assisting others and this is as great a service as direct help to Ourselves. Helping set up sites, assisting people in unloading, setting up tents, aiding the wounded and sick, feeding hungry guests, sharing information and ideas, staying late to clean up sites when others are off at parties--these selfless acts make the Outlands strong and rich, as people are likely to pass those kindnesses on to three or four others.

On March 11, Our shire of Kahlland in the far southeastern part of the kingdom is hosting Crown Tournament at which Our successors will be determined. All are invited to come and watch as the future of the kingdom unfolds. Around the fires that evening there will surely be great tales of war and glory.

The Warlord tournament will be on Sunday, March 12. This is one of the fiercest and most interesting tournaments in the kingdom, so plan to stay and enjoy it.

Our shire of Windkeep has graciously offered to host the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Collegium on April 8. The classes will focus on life in the 16th century, and there will be an area available for artisans to demonstrate their skills and display their works.

May the March winds be gentle.

Kingdom Officer's Reports

From The Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings unto the good gentles of these glorious Outlands from your Kingdo Seneschal,

By the time you read this, everyone should have made it back from the Estrella W and I am sure the Outlands was victorious. But then, we all win when we have t opportunity to meet old friends and make new ones in far off lands. I am anxious to hear t many war stories I look forward to hearing every year.

Their Majesties' Tournament to find Their Heirs is upon us! I hope to see all of you in the Shi of Kahlland March 10-12. April 8th brings Kingdom A & S Collegium in the Shire of Windke with the theme of "Life in the 16th Century" -- sounds very exciting. Coronation follows on M 12-14 in the Barony of Dragonsspine. I believe Their Majesties are planning to attend G Wars in the Kingdom of Meridies June 14-19. I encourage as many of you as possible to tra in support Their Majesties -- I have heard lots of wonderful things about this event and ho to attend at some time in the future...it's really close to where I was born (Biloxi, MS). The are many more events happening this spring and I am sure several Outlanders will be on t roads...Please travel safely!

Stag's Con will most likely occur July 8...with other details in the works as we speak. If y have suggestions, please address them to Master Adam or Countess AnneAliz. This will be n successor's event and I'm sure it will go very well.

A revision of the infamous "Red Tape" issue of the Outlandish Herald is planned for publicati in March for distribution in April. The issue is slated to include Kingdom Law, Policies a Procedures, and Award Charters. This will certainly be an issue to keep, and it will distributed to all those with membership. A special thanks in advance to all who will have hand in its production.

Speaking of membership, I would like to encourage all of you who have SCA memberships renew them as they become due...notices are sent out two months ahead for your convenienc Those of you who are not yet members, consider the benefits of membership...for instanc members may: receive armigerous awards, participate in armored and rapier comb tournaments, become a Kingdom ranked archer, serve as an officer, stay informed by receivi a Kingdom newsletter and Tournaments Illuminated (a quarterly publication which featur articles on subjects of interest to all of us...the reason why we joined the SCA). That's a lot receive for $35 a year! I understand that $35 has a differing financial impact on each of u Know that there are also associate and family memberships which might defray some of th impact. The Kingdom certainly appreciates the efforts of all it's subjects in whatever way y can participate. Giving of your time is as valued as your monetary contribution to the SC Please participate in all ways as you are able.

Thank you, seneschal and officers for providing me with your Domesday Reports. This mak my job significantly easier as I prepare my own domesday report.

In service,

Mistress Coemri nEithne

From the Kingdom Earl Marshal

Greetings Outlanders,

I hope that this missive finds you healthy and enjoying a well-earned rest after the War. Crown Tournament is at hand and the coming months hold many great tournaments and battles. So keep your helms polished and blades sharpened for although Estrella has past, there are still plenty of occasions to test your skill and prove your honor. Take note of the change to the Outlands Heavy Weapons Additional Rules regarding the use of metal quillions. The change is as follows:

Outlands Heavy Weapons Additional Rules
Weapons and Shields

6. Metal quillions on one and two-handed swords must be padded to prevent injury. Metal quillions on one and two-handed swords must be at least 1 ¼" at exposed ends and should be designed to minimize damage to rattan weapons.

With that, I bid you all enjoy the upcoming tourney season and, as always, be safe.

In service,

Duke Hrothgar Manomakh

From the Kingdom Archer-General

Greetings to the Archers of the Outlands,

It will soon be Spring and the warmer weather will tempt us to return to the outdoors to begin again our quest for fun and better archery scores. It is a good time to haul out your gear, if you haven't been shooting regularly, and inspect it for wear and tear and need for repairs. Get your fellow archers together and have fletching and string making parties. It is alot more fun as a group and goes faster, too. By the time you receive this, Estrella War will have been won(or lost) and we will be ready to move on to the new archery season. I will include the target archery results in the April OH.

Now for some important news that will affect everyone who sends in Royal Round and IKAC scores. Lord Damian d'Antioche is stepping down as the official Kingdom Archery Scorekeeper because he has accepted my offer for the position of Deputy Archer General for the South. Congratulations Damian and thank you for all of your hard work as scorekeeper. The Honorable Lady Leofsige O Caoimh (also known as Lyssa) has accepted the task as Kingdom Archery Scorekeeper. Her contact information is:

Maggie Griggs
3347 Queen Anne Way
Colorado Springs, CO 80917
(719)637-9047
lyssa@mgram.com

Please send your scores to Lyssa, instead of Damian.

Every year, on Memorial Day weekend, we hold an archery tournament to determine which archer will hold the position of Royal Archer for the next year. We have simultaneous tournaments in the North and at Grand Outlandish. I would like to try something a little different this year. The Shire of Hinterlands approached me with a request that we hold the Northern tournament at their event. Since Brigand's Bizarre is no longer being held and there were no other definite large events scheduled for the northern portion of the Kingdom, I accepted. Then Hawk's Hollow, seeing the obvious lack of a camping event for the North, jumped in with the Hawk's Hollow Crossroads tournament. I waited to see which of these two would make it on the Kingdom calendar. Surprise, Surprise - both did. Being a member of the Canton of Hawk's Hollow and not wishing to split my family up for that weekend, I had a dilemma. Here is how I will resolve my difficulties: the Royal Archer tourney will be held, simultaneously, at three separate locations. I will coordinate the results, via cell phone, from the Pawnee National Grasslands campground where Crossroads will be held. The final details about time and date will be decided by the three marshals running the separate tournaments. Watch this column for further updates.

In service,

Lady Ailinn Shadowfox

From the Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings to all. Although you will be reading this after War, I am unfortunately writing it before. I wish I could gaze into a crystal ball or read the cards to announce what wonderful things were done at Estrella, but alas, I cannot. I will only give the future wish that everyone had a good time.

I can look into the future on some matters, though. I hope that as many of you that can will join me in Windkeep for the Outlands Arts and Sciences Collegium. This year, the event has a theme...Life in the Sixteenth Century. Come and learn things about a time that you might not have ordinarily researched (not unlike early-period-me!) or come and share your knowledge of that age. Classes will range from 16th century dance to clothing, from the role of the horse to the effect of the printing press, from armor to domestic arts. My wish list? Perhaps some classes on 16th century theatre, calligraphy and illumination, politics/tactics/government or the effect of the New World on trade. If anyone is interested in teaching a class, please contact me. I understand that a feast is being planned to showcase the 16th century foods of different countries...a veritable Epicurean excursion.

We will also have a display/demonstration area. If you, or your guild, would like to do something in this area, please let me know. The items in this arts bazaar need not be from the 16th century, but it would be interesting to indicate how they might have been linked to the 16th century. I hope to see many of you there!

FOOD FOR THOUGHT: Too little information can cause frustration; too much information can cause confusion.

In service,

Caelte, Ban-Filidhe

From the Kingdom Minister of Children

Unto the Good Gentles of the Outlands, Greetings from The Honorable Lady Caterina Fregoso!

Good News! The Ministry of Children is creating a web page to help make resource material available on period books, toys, games and activities for kids of all ages! I will keep all of you posted on our progress with this, so that you may access it at the earliest possible date. My heartfelt thanks go out to Lady Maria Sol de Leon of al-Barran for her generous offer to create this for our Kingdom. If you have any resources or activity ideas for us, please send those to Lady Maria, if at all possible, in an electronic format. We would like to link this to the Kingdom website, and hopefully to the Society Ministry of Children's page, as soon as they get theirs up and running. Also, I would like to thank Maria for offering to be my Kingdom Deputy, and contact person for the Southern region of our Kingdom. For those of you in the Far North, you may contact Lady Amice de Fayel, my Far Northern Deputy for information and resource material regarding Children's Activities. I will list their addresses, phone numbers and e-mail addresses at the end of this article.

Note to Barons, Baronesses and Seneschals

For those groups who do not have a Minister of Children, I would be so grateful if you could send me a small report on any awards that your group gives to young people. I like to report to the Society Minister of Children on what recognition has been given to the young people of this Kingdom. This includes the Promise of the Outlands, and any AoA's that might have been given to those under 16 years of age, as well as any Baronial, Shire or Canton awards.

Note to all Autocrats, or those that may be considering it

If you intend to hold children's activities at your event, please do not segregate the children away from the rest of us. Children were very much a part of Medieval Life, and are a part of our lives, too. If you would be interested in resource materials for your activity staff, please feel free to contact one of the regional deputies or myself for information if you need some additional ideas.

Congratulations to Stephania of Caerthe for the recognition she received from the Baron and Baroness of Caerthe, Walter and Fiachra, at Twelfth Night. Keep up the good work. Also, a big thank you to Alexaya, a young gentle from Caer Galen, for teaching her wonderful class to other young people at that event. Another big thank you goes out to Gerald of Coventry from Hawks Hollow and my son Biondello Fregoso of Caer Galen for all of their help with Children's Activities at Twelfth Night. Huzzah!

In service to the Crown and Kingdom of the Outlands,

The Honorable Lady Caterina

From the Kingdom Chronicler

My, my, my. It's March already?!?! Seems like only yesterday it was January, and a new year was beginning. Now, we find it's nearly a third gone. Time flies, and usually far too quickly, especially when so much fun is to be had.

I'd like to take this opportunity to remind autocrats that general event articles must meet the guidelines published in the back of the Outlandish Herald immediately following Tel Tales. The most common element still found missing from articles are postal addresses for feast coordinators, and other coordinator types. While phone numbers and E-mail addresses are adequate for quick communication, mailing addresses are still a required element for those who may not have telephone/E-mail service, or who just plain like to write letters. This does not mean, however, that I am totally resistant to changing that policy. If you are an autocrat, have been an autocrat, or are considering being an autocrat, let me know your thoughts on the matter of addresses.

On another note, I am also finding that I'm getting event articles via E-mail that are never followed by the Kingdom Event Form in the postal mail. These forms are still necessary, as sometimes I don't find out about an event until Master Adam sends me the calendar. If I have the forms ahead of time, I'm less likely to be surprised. Some people have scanned the form and sent it along with the article copy as a graphic image. This is perfectly acceptable. Just, please, please, be sure if you intend to print an event article in the OH, I get a copy of the form somehow. It'll save both you and me a lot of potential trouble in the long run.

Well, enough rambling, back to editing....now just where DID I leave that dangling participle.....dang it, I lose more sentences that way.

In service,

The Honorable Lord Duncan

Tournaments Illuminated Editor/Art Director Needed

Candidates for the Editor position should have professional editorial experience, the ability to meet deadlines and organize a staff, experience with or an assistant in bookkeeping and budgeting, and a vision for continuing to improve Tournaments Illuminated.

Candidates for the Art Director position should have experience with modern magazine production, the ability to meet deadlines and the ability to work with printers.

The SCA's experience has shown that the Editor and Art Director work more easily together when they are in the same general locale. This arrangement is preferable, although not required, and candidate teams are encouraged to apply together. Single applications will also be considered. The Editor/Art Director can be the same person if the candidate has all of the necessary skills. Both positions receive a small stipend.

Applications should include a resume and a sample portfolio. Please send applications to:

Event Announcement Information

Unto the populace of the great and glorious Outlands, does Laird Duncan MacAllister, Kingdom Chronicler, send greetings. Listed below you will find the requirements that have been set forth for Outlands Event Announcements. Please note that those items listed as 'Mandatory' must be present in the appropriate event announcement, or I will be unable to print the announcement.

Mandatory in ALL event announcements:

- ☐ Name of the Event
- ☐ Sponsoring Group
- ☐ Event Date(s)
- ☐ Mundane name of site
- ☐ Contact Information for the Autocrat
- ☐ Contact Information for Reservations (if not Autocrat, and they are being taken)
- ☐ Contact Information for Head Cook (If serving food)
- ☐ Contact Information for additional organizers (Crash, fighting, etc.)
- • If reservations are being taken:
    - ☐ Deadline for acceptance
    - ☐ All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)
    - ☐ How to make checks payable

Mandatory in FINAL event announcement (Month of):

- ☐ All above information
- ☐ Site Open and Close times
- ☐ Mundane address of the site
- ☐ Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
- ☐ Directions to site (include distances, street names, etc.)
    - • Do NOT assume signs will always be visible
- ☐ All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)

Optional, but highly recommended:

- ☐ A map to the site
- ☐ Schedule of events
- ☐ Feast menu (if feast is provided)
- ☐ Other pertinent site information (pet restrictions, water availability, etc.)

'Contact Information' as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, address, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the three (3) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication. The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article.
